

Short Course Announcement

Minerals Industry Risk Management (MIRM)

Willet Green Miller Centre, Laurentian University, Sudbury, Ontario
 Hosted by MIRARCO and presented by Jim Joy, Minerals Industry Safety & Health Centre

Register by June 15th and save $200!

About the Course	About the Speaker	Who should take this course?
This course examines the principles and concepts of risk management such as losses, hazards, risks, controls/ barriers, risk analysis and assessment techniques. The development of risk management processes including auditing and incident investigation tools also form a major component of this course, using relevant case study material.	Jim Joy is Professor of Mining Safety and Director of the Minerals Industry Safety and Health Centre at the University of Queensland. Jim has developed mining concepts, tools and management systems models based on System Safety technology developed in North America for the nuclear power industry. He has also written many papers on risk management topics, including government publications and a book on workplace risk assessment called "WRAC", as well as editing the mining industry publication "Safe Mining".	Suitable for engineers, managers and other professionals functioning in safety, health, environment and / or risk management areas in the mineral industry. This course provides the essential knowledge and skills that underpin the successful application of minerals industry risk management techniques.
Course dates October 9 – 11, 2007		Cost Early Bird: $1600 After June 15, 2007: $1800 (plus GST)

Workshop materials, CD, lunch and refreshments included.

For more information:

phone: (705) 675-1151 x. 5071 course info: info@mirarco.org updates: mirarco.org

